5th International Gathering for Scouting and Young People with Special Needs

Dear friends

Unfortunately due to a missing email, the invitation to this event was not received in Europe. We now need to act very quickly to enable as many participants to attend who wish to.

Sponsorship is offered for 1 male Rover Scout, aged 18 to 23 to participate, free of charge, including an economy class flight. Please note all participants must be male.

Please note that the deadline was 10 December, but it is still possible to arrange participation, if you act immediately. I suspect that 9 January would be the ultimate deadline.

Sorry for this very tight deadline, and sorry that it has not been possible to arrange translation to French. However, we thought it better to get the information out without delay.

If you have any points of clarification, please feel free to address them to the Arab Office.

Yours sincerely

David McKee
Regional Director
