Subject: International Scout Peace Camp 2013

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Scouting,

Greetings from Jakarta!

On behalf of the Gerakan Pramuka and in collaboration with the World Scout Bureau/Asia-Pacific Regional Office, we would like to invite your Rovers to join International Scout Peace Camp 2013 which will be held at the Cibubur National Scout Campsite, Jakarta, Indonesia.

Below is the basic information of the International Scout Peace Camp:

- Date: 25 - 31 March 2013
Participants are requested to arrive at the Campsite on 24 March 2013 and leave on 1st April 2013.
- Venue: Cibubur National Scout Campsite, Jakarta Province.
The campsite is located at the eastern part of Jakarta.

Elevation of the campsite is 50 meters above sea level.
- Weather: The weather in Jakarta is generally hot with average temperature ranging from 22 to 28 degrees Celsius. It will be rainy season during the event.
- Eligibility: The camp is for Rovers, both male and female, between 18-25 years old.

The total number of participants will be 500 Scouts out of which 240 will come from the six regions (each region will be represented by 40 persons) and the rest of 260 will come from the Indonesia.
- Camp Fee: Sponsored through the Messengers of Peace (MoP) Initiative.

The fee covers food for seven days, transportation from Soekarno Hatta International Airport in Jakarta to the campsite and back, accommodation in tents, camp kit (scarf, bag, handbook, cap, shirt, etc), and activities.

Sleeping bag and personal camping equipment should be brought by the participants.
- Programme: The draft Camp Programme is attached.
